

DIGITAL TICKETS

All hospitality tickets will be digital and available in the AIGWO Tickets App. You will receive an email inviting you to download the AIGWO Tickets App to access your tickets.

Once you have downloaded the app and created an account with the same email address that is attached to your hospitality booking, you will be able to view your tickets.

Once your hospitality tickets are appearing successfully in the app, you will be able to transfer them to your guests. Don't worry if your guest list changes ahead of attendance, your hospitality tickets can be reshared with a new lucky guest. We strongly recommend that all guests have their own ticket on their own smartphone to ensure seamless entry to the course and hospitality.
